Bookings and Deposits:
A predetermined deposit or written confirmation is required to secure all bookings, this deposit must be received on confirmation of your booking. With tentative bookings, if deposits are not received within two weeks of the booking date, the room will be automatically released after this time.

Payment:
Deposits are made on confirmation of the bookings. Remaining balance is required three working days prior to the function (at this stage is when we require final attendee numbers). Any additional charges incurred during the duration of the function must be settled at the end of the function, (unless credit has been established and accepted by the hotel).

Quotations:
All quotations are based upon approximate numbers provided at initial enquiry. Should the numbers alter significantly, a surcharge my be applied, (to avoid this please notify the hotel as soon as you can of any changes).

Final Numbers:
Confirmation of the final number of guests attending the function is required three working days prior to the function. These final numbers is what the function will be charged.

Cancellations:
Deposits will be refunded in full is written cancellation is received three months prior to your function. Fifty percent of the full deposit will be refunded if a cancellation is received between one to three months prior to the function. If the function room is re-booked, full deposit will be re-funded. The deposit is non-refundable if a cancellation occurs within one month of the event, and the function room cannot be re-sold.

Surcharges:
There is a 15% surcharge on room hire, catering & equipment hire on public holidays.

Display & Signage:
Nothing shall be nailed, screwed, stapled or adhered to any wall, door or surface of Mt Ommaney Hotel Apartments. The hanging of banners must be approved by the Hotel prior to the event.

Insurance:
Mt Ommaney Hotel Apartments is extremely careful when looking after guests' belongings. But we do not take responsibility for the damage or loss of items before, during or after the function. It is advisable that organisers arrange their own insurance cover for property damage and public liability where appropriate.

Security:
The Hotel reserves the right to request security arrangements at the client's own expense.

Damage:
The organiser will be held responsible for any damage sustained to the Hotel property. The Hotel reserves the right to request a 'bond' which will be fully refunded at the successful completion of your function.

Beverage:
We do not permit the patrons or invitees to bring liquor or food into our licenced premise. We do not allow external catering to be brought onto the premise.
By law Mt Ommaney Hotel Apartments abides by 'Responsible Service of Alcohol' at all times. At no time do we allow shooter, shots, double nips or cocktails at any function or event.
